

Rudy Santos - Commissioners, Precinct 4

Rudy Santos was sworn in as the newest member in June 2015 and is proud to serve Port Freeport as Commissioner. Santos was employed by Angleton Independent School District as the Director of Maintenance and Operation for more than 25 years. He is now employed with the Alvin Independent School District, where he is a Project Manager in building programs.

Education

Santos is a 1982 graduate of Texas A & M University.

Affiliations & Community Involvement

Santos has served his community of Angleton for 22 years in the following capacities: Planning and Zoning Commissioner, City Council Member, Mayor Pro Tem and Mayor. Along with his many civic activities, Santos is active with Brazoria County 4-H as co-chair of the Horse Advisory Committee, Angleton FFA, American Quarter Horse Association and a member of the major Livestock Shows and Rodeos throughout the state.

Personal

He is a lifelong resident of Angleton, Texas. Rudy is married to Rosalie for 23 years, and they have two daughters. Jessica attends Texas A&M University on scholarship and will graduate with the class of 2019. Reanna attends Angleton High School.

Together as a family they all enjoy deer hunting and all equine related activities. Most important of all, the family enjoys spending time together.

Port Freeport

Port Freeport is ranked 10th in chemicals and 26th in containers. The Channel serves Dow Chemical, Phillips 66, BASF, Tenaris, Vulcan Material, Mammoet, Freeport LNG, Riviana, Dole, Chiquita, Seaway, Mediterranean Shipping Company (MSC) and Hoegh Autoliners. You can learn more about Port Freeport at www.portfreeport.com.